

1998-Triplett-King completes their first DOT project: the I-526 Mark Clark Expressway/ US 17 Interchange Value Engineering Project, in Charleston, SC.

2004-Carolinas AGC Pinnacle Award Best Heavy Highway Project-John Hardee Expressway Airport Project, in Columbia, SC. Saved SCDOT $2.6M.

2010-3 Offices - 35 Employees: Triplett-King moves into an 18,000 square foot, state-of-the-art facility due to growth of the firm.

1997-Jim Triplett and Merritt King establish Triplett-King & Associates, Inc., in Chester, SC, providing bridge design and construction support for highway contractors throughout the Southeast.

1999-Triplett-King is featured in ENR for "Reaching New Lengths for Prestressed Concrete Bulb Tee Beams" for the I-526 Mark Clark Expressway. Their first DOT project.

2010-US 17 Washington Bypass is recognized as the Carolinas AGC Pinnacle Award for Best Heavy Highway Project.

2010-Merritt King is recognized as the prestigious Rock Hill Chamber of Commerce's Business Man of the Year Award.

2011-Triplett-King is reorganized and solely owned by Merritt King.

97

99

01

03

05

07

09

11

1999-Triplett-King expands their services, adding Construction Engineering & Inspection (CE&I) - landing their first CE&I job as an On Call Firm for the SCDOT.

1998-Triplett-King relocates to Rock Hill office with 3 employees.

2000-Triplett-King moves to a new location in historic downtown Rock Hill.

2005-ACEC Engineering Excellence Award-John Hardee Expressway Project, in Columbia, SC.

2007-Triplett-King celebrates their 10th anniversary.

2004-Triplett-King is featured in Roads & Bridges Magazine in "Top 10 Roads" article for the I-95 Widening Bridge over S-26 TV Road, Florence County, SC.

2006-Triplett-King is awarded two ACEC Engineering Excellence Awards for the first-ever Statewide Bridge Replacements Program, consisting of 33 bridges designed in 9 months across SC, and the $42M I-520 Palmetto Parkway Project Phase I.

2010-Triplett-King is awarded the ACEC Engineering Excellence Award for the I-520 Palmetto Parkway, Phase II Project and also recognized as the ACEC Small Firm of the Year Award.

2011-Triplett-King awarded the ACEC Engineering Excellence Award for the SCDOT District 4 Federal Aid Bridge Replacement Program consisting of the design and management of 25 bridges across 7 counties.

2010-Triplett-King invites clients and colleagues to an open house and a ribbon-cutting ceremony celebrating their new building.

